RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Boston - 25X1A9a
[REDACTED] Planning Assistant to Deputy Director for Support, Central Intelligence Agency, will be graduated May 14 from the 47th session of the Advanced Management Program held at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. This session began February 14, 1965.

From the United States and overseas, 160 business executives, government and military leaders participated in the 13-week program preparing mature administrators to assume the responsibilities of top management in the business or public organizations that sponsored them. Since its inception in 1943, more than 5,500 men - and women - have participated in the AMP, the nation's oldest senior management development program conducted by a university.
